

“I’ll take an
exam table
over a hospital
bed any day.”

Sure, going to the doctor sounds like a drag. But diseases like high blood pressure and colon cancer are nothing to fool around with. So I go every year for my screenings. And then I can rest easy...in my own bed.

Live Like Your Life Depends On It.